

Organization Chart

The activities of the association are managed and operated by General Meeting, Administrative Board, Council and Head Office.
Administrative Board: Administering authority which is commissioned to manage the association by the fellow members.
Council: Administering authority which is commissioned to operate the activities by Administrative Board and the fellow members.
Head Office: Cooperates with the Association Center including office meetings, and supports the management work, reception desk, Administrative Board and Council.